Categories and Subject Descriptors
• Information systems→Database management system engines
• Computing methodologies→Massively parallel and high-performance simulations.

This is just an example, please use the correct category and subject descriptors for your submission. The ACM Computing Classification Scheme:
http://www.acm.org/about/class/class/2012. Please read the HOW TO CLASSIFY WORKS USING ACM'S COMPUTING CLASSIFICATION SYSTEM for instructions on how to classify your document using the 2012 ACM Computing Classification System and insert the index terms into your Microsoft Word source file.

Keywords
Keywords are your own designated keywords separated by semicolons (;;).

1. SUMMARY
Instead of an abstract, provide a summary of the session here.

2. OBJECTIVE
Describe the topic of the special session and explain how the session will be organized (e.g., as a committee report, tutorial, hands-on exercise, …). Indicate why the proposed session is important.

3. OUTLINE
Organize this section by subtopics, activities, or a similar scheme. If more than one participant is involved, label each section of the outline with the name of the participant who will be presenting that section. Note that in the case of a committee report, the presenters might be a subset of the authors. You have 75 minutes total and we suggest that you allow at least 40 - 50% of the time for questions and answers or other interaction with the attendees. A sample outline might look something like this:
• Introduction (10 mins) – Speakers will introduce topic of the session with examples
• Demo of topic (20 mins) - Blah, blah, blah
• Small Group Brainstorming (15 mins) – Attendees will brainstorm ideas relevant to the session
• Etc.

4. EXPECTATIONS
State the intended audience. Indicate how much the session will cover and what the audience should learn. This is particularly important if your proposed special session is a tutorial. If feedback from the audience is desired, indicate how it will be elicited.

5. SUITABILITY FOR A SPECIAL SESSION
Include a brief description that justifies the inclusion of this presentation as a special session. Explain why the proposed presentation is better suited for a special session than a paper or panel.
